

DatAnalysis

Find it at: www.lib.monash.edu.au/databases/

DatAnalysis contains:

- comprehensive reports for companies listed on the Australian Securities Exchange (ASX) and those delisted since 1990
- 10 years or more of financial history for each company
- share price data, updated daily
- annual reports (from at least 1995) and announcements to the ASX (from 1989).

Use DatAnalysis to find:

- information about the company's operations, business interests and history
- profiles of directors
- current and historical balance sheet, profit and loss and cash flow details
- ASX listing details, and capital and dividend histories
- details of the top 20 and substantial shareholders
- details of subsidiary companies
- segmental performance data for the company
- information on upcoming floats and takeovers
- extract selected data to create customised lists and reports.

Tips:

- When viewing the report for a particular company, click the Full Co. Report tab to generate a report that can be printed or downloaded. The report will include all sections from Corporate Details to Cash Flow.
- For details about constructing searches and producing customised lists and reports, click the Searching and Reporting Guide link on the home page.
